

SATURDAY MORNING MASS TIME CHANGE

As I announced at Mass last Saturday morning, beginning July 1 the Saturday morning Mass will move to 8:30a.m. to maintain a regular weekday morning, Monday thru Saturday schedule. Please note that this is not just a summer change but a permanent one.

As it turns out, the reason for the different time apparently goes back several decades to the days when the Sisters lived in the convent and there were two Saturday morning Masses, one of which the Sisters attended. For whatever reason, it seems that it never occurred to anyone to make the weekday schedule uniform when the second (9a.m.) Mass was dropped.

So if you come on Saturday mornings, enjoy an extra 30 minutes of weekend sleep. I know I will.
