

PANCAKE BREAKFAST THANKS

A huge "thank-you" goes out to the relatively small group of very generous parishioners who put together last Sunday's first Pancake Breakfast in Sayers Hall. The food was great and the turnout was impressive, to the point of having nothing left after the last people were served following the 11:30 mass.

The hope of the organizers is to do this once a month and I'm sure they will all generously pitch in again. But I'm also sure that they would appreciate all the help they can get from additional volunteers. As the saying goes, "many hands make light work." Many more hands would certainly be welcome.
